

I. God _____ Life

A. God _____ You

B. God Made You a Living _____

C. God Created You in His _____

D. God _____ You

Therefore, you are of the utmost value to God and ought to value others the same

II. Secular Society _____ Life

A. _____ Beginnings

B. _____ Purposes

C. _____ Endings

Therefore, the world has no moral or ethical reason to preserve life

III. God's Sovereignty _____ Your Compassion

A. God Is Perfectly _____ and

1. God Begins and Ends _____

2. God's Compassion and Care is

Your failure to trust in God's sovereignty will affect the way you view right and wrong.

B. You Are Imperfectly _____ and

1. Your Goals Are Usually _____

2. Your Compassion Is Flawed with _____

You cannot rely solely on your own experiences, desires, or feelings to direct your decisions.

IV. Christ's Work _____ Your Value

A. Christ Died to Redeem Your _____

B. Christ Resurrected to Transform Your _____

God views you with the utmost values, therefore He sent Christ to die and rise from the dead for you.

V. Eternal Blessings _____ Temporal
Curses

A. Suffering and Death are Results of _____

B. Eternal Unimaginable Suffering in _____ Awaits
the Unsaved

C. Present _____ Results in Eternal Rewards

D. Eternity Health in Heaven is “ _____
_____ ”

Ignoring the eternal aspect of our lives is like washing and waxing a crushed car – of the very little good it will do, it is meaningless.